FARMVILLE

The tobacco from our farms being received in good quantities notwithstanding the condition of the roads. Courtney and Vaughan must get together regularly, and when they appreciate each other's rights and respect them the meetings are always harmonious and pleasant.

We are as a people very much indebted to the Norfolk & Western authorities for our elegant and attractive passenger depot, one of the best in the state, but we must either build and how we want a new freight depot and more attractive looking express office. There is an immense amount of freight and express handled here, and strangers passing through our town on the cars cannot be favorably impressed with the architectural beauties of our freight and express places of business.

Farmville is not afraid of competition and stands ready to welcome new Normal schools for our girls and join as many as another to grant them and properly furnish, equip and maintain. With the interest already written by the parents of all those which are to follow to locate thought not fail of maintaining a commanding place in Virginia. Extensive additions and coarse plans for completing the buildings here will be consummated. Virginia will not be rewise enough to cripple one child to stand among or on its feet.

Mrs. Hurd, the venerable mother of Mr. A. E. Hurd, who has recently returned from New York to make her home with her son, has recently celebrated her 80th birth day. She is a woman of rare gifts of mind and of body, and in spite of age is always the cynosure of good cheer and good company. Her very presence is a benediction.

There are but few old men still actively engaged in our business circles and those few look upon it that they are just so many years young. May the mantle of the latter fall on the shoulders of those who are still toiling for the best and burden of the day.

This is an interesting and busy season with our Commission merchants. They spend most of the year [illegible] and now they are expecting returns.

Our policemen are rejoicing in the fact that the nights are growing shorter. There is nothing so cheerful in this world as sunshine.

The macadam road is a great luxury just now. Happy the farmer when he reaches it on his way to market with a heavy load of tobacco on.

There will be a surprise manufacturer who before many months have come and go.

Now and then suggestion is made for another Farmville Fair, but the matter is much hard work to inspire the people to [illegible] seems just willing to lay hold. The exist to reason why every county in the state should not have its Fair and then all wind up at Richmond with a grand concluding exhibit.

It would surprise many of us to know just what our neighbors have that is worth seeing.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill bottle one-third full of urine from your water and let it stand twenty-four hours. A sediment or settlement or [illegible] indicates unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains the linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it, or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfils every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells you more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, by address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Trade over the Dispensary counter is still brisk. Some folks drink beer who can't buy it and—that is they can't buy beer and bread too, and they must have the beer.

N. B. Davidson's is the Mecca for those who come to Farmville in search of dry goods, ready-made clothing and shoes, the First National for those in quest of money. W. T. Doyne's for parties who wish to furnish their homes and the Farmville Building Co. for those who want to build homes. We doubt if more prudent and yet more progressive business men can be found in any other town of Virginia. Of course such enterprises as prudence dictated, and not therefore surprised to find that they see the columns of the Times as one of the mediums through which to reach the public. Indeed the Planter's Warehouse knows just how best to reach the farmers of Appomattox and Buckingham.

Mrs. Emily Venable and her daughter Miss Gertrude, will spend the winter in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Venable will make Farmville their home.

The Westover is outdoing the cyclone in the travelling public.

The seating rink is not only a source of pleasure but of profit as well.

Judge Watkins looks serene and happy now that the Judicial bee no longer buzzes in his bonnet. He is a good lawyer and will command a full share of practice, is a good farmer and has a good farm and should have a good farm and Normal school. He won't be idle or lonesome.

The "street girl graduate" will soon be in evidence again.

Vennet.

Dear Editor—Will you spare me a little space in your columns to relate a few of the happenings around here.

Good many of the farmers around here sold tobacco last week. A few seem to be satisfied with their prices.

Mr. Charlie Rosser of this place and Misses Jennie and Estelle Swan of Hixburg spent several days with relatives in Lynchburg.

Mr. Otis Johnson of Madisonville was at this place on Friday last.

Mr. Tom Hall Baker is very popular and Sunday with her cousin Miss Mattie Baker of Madisonville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ernest Rose and little son Carroll visited relatives in Lynchburg last week.

We are sorry to say Mrs. Wm. Puckett is indisposed.

Miss Jennie Swan of Hixburg, the guest of her sister Mrs. Edna Covington near this place.

Mr. W. H. Hooper of Red Hook visited relatives at this place on Thursday.

Messrs. W. D. Hooter, R. P. Baker, and W. H. Hooter, with a pack of hounds captured a large fox near this place last Tuesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hooper were the guests of Mrs. H. S. Baker, of Madisonville on last Sunday.

A good many from here attended Quarterly Conference at Centenary Baptist church on Sunday.

Wishing the TIMES success.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Absolutely Harmless.

The fond parent often gives medicine containing injurious substances when a sometimes more disastrous than the disease it is intended to relieve. Every mother should know that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is entirely free from any injurious substance. It contains nothing harmful and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by J. R. Atwood, Appomattox, R. J. Carter, Prospect, E. F. Glover, Evergreen.

Farmville in the Lead.

Sold on the 15th inst for Hix Bros of Hixburg, 925 pounds of tobacco for $500; 970 pounds at $10.25; 655 pounds at $10.50 and 710 pounds at $19; and for Hix Bros. and Walker 360 pounds at $4.50; 205 pounds at $7.25; 355 pounds at $10.25; 415 pounds at $14.75 and 320 pounds at $21.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Bellefonte, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I prevailed on her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she was able to walk without assistance. In fact she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with."

A MONSTER.

There's a deadly dangerous monster,
Creeping slowly o'er the sand,
Creeping softly, slowly, surely,
With his eyes turned towards this land.

He's a "mocker" and he's "raging,"
And his blood's a poisonous thing;
His breath is foul and fetid,
And he leaves a ghastly sting.

How the bulging eyes are staring,
As he creeps his slimy trail,
And his beaks preparing, eager,
Lashes with his fiery tail.

See the cruel jaws wide open,
"Seeking whom he may devour;"
He is always glutted, bloated,
For he feasts from hour to hour.

Old men with locks of silver,
That should be a crown of pride,
Go smiling, staggering, reeling,
By the fiery monster's side.

Women, even little children
Are struck blindly by his paws,
But young man's the choicest morsel,
That can fill the yawning jaws.

You can tell the road he travels,
By the fearful havoc wrought,
For his path is strewn with victims
Like the car of Juggernaut.

Crime and vice stalk close beside him,
Holding tight each other's hand,
For the followers of this monster,
Know no laws of God or man.

And his way is marked by mourning
Yarked by horror, dread and fear,
By wails of heart-broken mothers,
By the orphan's bitter tear.

By the routed, bleeding, dying,
Who before that sister fell,
With their eyes turned ever downward,
To the gloomy depths of Hell.

Ah! ye fathers of these children,
Will ye sit idly down
And see this fearful monster,
Make his lair in your town?

You may call him what it pleases,
But his blood will be the same,
You can conquer if you try.
The dispensary then will perish,
And a dangerous beast will die.

UNCLE BILLY.

Buckingham, Va.

Buckingham.

Buckingham seems to be a great field in which to establish banks. Two or three different parties are trying to establish a bank at Arvonia. There is one at Dillwyn, one at this place and the colored people have one at Axtelle.

The Negro Thomas Parsons will likely be tried at the February term of Court. It will be recalled that Parsons shot and killed another negro named Banks and he has been confined in jail here ever since.

Mr. A. C. Garnett is out again attending to business after an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Augy Hall visited very unwell at her home.

Buckingham hardly be any dispensary established here I think There is not a bar room in this county. Of course a few tanks will always find something to drink and will get drunk and make themselves disagreeable to sober people but not near so many will be drunk on public days and incommode those who have business to attend to, as would be the case if liquor was sold legally here.

As to incorporating the town I don't think more than 25 men live here all told.

Our farmer friends got to plowing during the beautiful spell we had now they will seize the first chance and burn plant land as tobacco is selling so well.

Mrs. Amelia Powers has gone to stay with her step daughter, Mrs. Wm. M. Wade in Richmond, after a severe spell of sickness.

There is another effort being made to get the Orange and Keysville R. R. built from Rooney to Keysville and there is another survey of the route ordered by the new promoters.

Philosophy from Sutton.

When several opinions are presented it is easy to select one that conforms to our own, and this we seldom fail to do. The highest praise that can be bestowed upon us is this; we reach the eminences upon which we stand by our own exertions and were not carried thither by another. A liar is a cheat and therefore not respectable. If thou art free to control me thy freedom is my bondage. The struggle for life grows heavy when there is nothing but hunger in the house and nothing but sorrow in the heart. While perverseness is barring the door against reason, danger crawls in at the door. Never was anyone too poor to give a smile and a kind word and never was any one too rich to receive them. A mighty man of valor is he who begirds himself with wisdom and rescues lovely peace from the clutches of war.

Mr. F. C. Dolan is very sick and is confined to his bed.

Against Dispensary.

While the subject of incorporating this town is uppermost in the minds of the people, cannot something be said to them in regard to having a dispensary here in their midst. An incorporation of this place would be for it's good and improvement no doubt with the proper motive for that incorporation, but I hear the object is to have it done so the voters in the place may, by giving a majority, establish a dispensary here. It is hard to believe, with so much at stake, that the people of this little village will give a majority of votes for such a thing. What is held in the balance? The lives, the happiness, earthly and eternal, not only of men beyond the widdle walks of life, of boys verging on to manhood, but of the dear children around us. I look out upon their fair and smiling faces and wonder can a people, by voting for a dispensary bring such a sorrow on their lives, making impurity where purity should dwell, grief where gladness should reign, degredation and dishonor where honor and uprightness should be. And you say how can we do this? By casting your vote for whiskey to be sold in your midst which a dispensary where it will not only be convenient for you to get it, but placing a temptation hard for your boys to resist because characterised by your example. Stop and think of it—not only filling a drunkard's grave yourself, but dragging your boys down to perdition with you. And you, ye mothers be found I pray you on the right side of this question. There is no "riding the fence" on this subject. If not for us you are against us. Softly and tenderly have you fondled your little ones and with a mother's love and care kept them from the wickedness and snares of the world. Now will you cast your influence for that dispensary, and in years to come have your happiness blighted, your heart-broken perhaps, by seeing these dear little ones not grown up to manhood's estate in every good honor but sneaking and stealing around with bleared eyes and bloated faces, begging some one for one more drink, to lie down in drunken sleep to awake to begin again.

I have not words to paint the picture as I would wish, but you can look around and see this evil, in all it's fearfulness. Seeing it, I hope you will realize what it will be to have a dispensary at Buckingham C. H. and let your vote and influence go against it.

Uniform Examination of Teachers for 1906

For the public school teachers of Buckingham County, whose certificates have expired or will expire July 31st, the Uniform Examination will be held, at the Court House, on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd days of March 1906. The white and colored teachers will have the same examination and at the same time and place, but in separate rooms or buildings. No excuse will be considered valid except accompanied by a written statement from a physician that the applicant was too ill to attend the examination.

To obtain a first grade certificate the following studies have been added to the usual ones: Elementary algebra, punctuation, business forms of arithmetic, drawing, one branch of science, either physical geography, elementary physics, or elementary agriculture, and one division of history, either general or English.

Respectfully,

JOHN A. TWYMAN,
Division Supt.

INTERESTING STORIES ABOUT HOME FOLKS.

Our Correspondents Relate the News of the County.

Evergreen.

Mr. E. H. Cawthorn had the misfortune to have his glass front broken open and two five dollar barrell guns stolen, which happened to be right at the window. He has not as yet found the guilty party.

Mrs. J. W Ranson, who has been ill is now able to be up we are glad to state.

Miss Saidee Coleman was in our village last week all smiles.

Miss Addie Dawson is progressing very nicely with her school here. It will close now soon.

Mr. Neal Cawthorn of Hollywood was in the Hill City last week attending the sales of his tobacco.

The very rough weather of late found very little wood at some of the woodpiles.

Mrs. E. C. Glover is slowly improving but not able to be out or bed yet.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McDearmon of Bellvue, were in our village last week.

Mrs. Joe Inge, who has been quite ill is convalescent.

Mr. B. F. Hunter was in the Hill City last week.

Mr. W. J. Glover paid a visit to Lynchburg and other points last week.

Mr. Doc. Baldwin of near Pamplin City lost his son last week. We have not as yet learned the cause of his sad death. They have the sympathy of every one who knows them.

We are very sorry to learn of the illness of Miss Bertha Woolridge and hope she will soon be well.

Mr. Lawrence Brown is progressing nicely with Mr. J. W. Lane's nice residence. Mr. Brown is a go-ahead workman. If you have any work to be done he is the man to do it nicely.

Mr. James Moses and family have moved into our town. We welcome them among us.

Hurtsville.

Having seen nothing in your valuable paper lately from down here I will send a few lines to let you know we are still alive.

There is a scarcity of news at present owing no doubt to some extent, to the condition of our public roads.

Our farmers are marketing tobacco at a lively rate but the latest reports are that the prices are not so high. The following prices were obtained by some of our farmers: R. W. Coleman 3000 lbs. at an average of $9, highest price $13.50; Watkins and Walden Bros. 4000 lbs at an average of $9, highest price $13; the lowest being $5. The last named gentleman will sell 5000 lbs. of leaf tobacco on the Lynchburg market the 26th, so watch for some fancy prices.

We are sorry to note the illness of little Ba-com, the son of Mr. E. S. Taylor, of Prospect, also Tweedy Lewis, the son of Mr. Wm. Lewis. The former has pneumonia and the latter has fever. We wish both a speedy recovery.

Miss Mattie Walden is expected to visit her home folk in a few days.

There will be an entertainment given at the home of Mr. W. T. Coleman on the night of the 26. It goes without saying that this occasion will be much enjoyed, as Mr. and Mrs. Coleman are well-known for their hospitality.

Hollywood.

"Bad roads" is all the talk here but we are having some good weather now, which we hope will continue for a while.

We were sorry to hear of the illness of Mr. Sylvester Beasley and hope he will soon be restored to health again.

Mr. J. L. Wooldridge and wife were visiting at Mr. John Thomas Scrugge in Buckingham last week.

Mr. O. L. Haga has moved to West Appomattox, where he expects to live.

Mr. C. A. Hagar and wife have moved to his father's place, Mr. Wm. Haga, where they expect to run a lumber business.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Fannie Jenkins is improving.

Mr. H. C. Turner has moved to his old place again.

Our preacher, Rev. W. E. Warren preached his farewell sermon last Sunday. We hate to give him up.

Well I will close for this time, as I can think of no more news.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. Is the best remedy for coughs and colds.

L. E. Smith, Appomattox; W. B. Woodson, Concord; W. C. Nowlin, Spout Springs.

Thanks.

Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Bailey desire to express their thanks and gratitude to all their neighbors and friends for all their kindness to them during their recent illness.

Alexander Southern Thweatt's snowstorm arrived at the precise moment of the departure of the Palm Limited for Miami, Palm Beach, Aiken, Augusta, Nassau, Havanna, Savannah, Jacksonville, Ormond, and St. Augustine, on Monday. I was inveigled into going to Jersey City to inspect the new train, and found a Mr. Ruzie on trucks. Too fine for my blood—I'm sure that everybody must pay. Thweatt took as much pride in that train as if it had been a new baby or Washington Heights—the colored quarter of New York Male passengers gave a satisfied grunt and the females said—"Ah!"

This is the train that arrives at Jacksonville and St. Augustine on time.

There is no longer any doubt about the desirability of encouraging the American girl in athletics. She may want to visit the White House some day.

A Thousand Dollars Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good."

Catarrh Cannot be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free.
